DIVINE LITURGY

Troparia and Kontakia

Troparion, Tone 6: Angelic powers were upon Your tomb* and the guards became like dead men;* Mary stood before Your tomb* seeking Your most pure body.* You captured Hades without being overcome by it.* You met the Virgin and granted life.* O Lord, risen from the dead,* glory be to You!

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Kontakion, Tone 6: With His life-giving hand* Christ our God, the Giver of life,* raised all the dead from the murky abyss* and bestowed resurrection upon humanity.* He is for all the Saviour,* the resurrection and the life, and the God of all.

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Theotokion, Tone 6: Undaunted patroness of Christians,* O steadfast intermediary with the Creator,* turn not away from the suppliant voices of sinners,* but in your kindness come to help us who cry out to you in faith.* Be quick to intercede, make haste to plead,* for you are ever the patroness of those who honour you, O Mother of God.

Prokeimenon, Tone 6

Save Your people, O Lord, * and bless Your inheritance.

verse: Unto You I will cry, O Lord, my God, lest You turn from me in silence. (Psalm 27:9,1).

Epistle – 2 Corinthians 4:6-15

Brothers and Sisters, it is the God who said, “Let light shine out of darkness,” who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us. We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made visible in our bodies. For while we live, we are always being given up to death for Jesus’ sake, so that the life of Jesus may be made visible in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you.

But just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture— “I believed, and so I spoke”—we also believe, and so we speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

Alleluia, Tone 6

verse: He who lives in the aid of the Most High, shall dwell under the protection of the God of heaven.

verse: He says to the Lord: You are my protector and my refuge, my God, in Whom I hope. (Psalm 90:1,2).

Gospel – Matthew 22:35-46

At that time, a lawyer, asked Jesus a question to test him. “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?” He said to him, “‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.”

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: “What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?” They said to him, “The son of David.” He said to them, “How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying,

‘The Lord said to my Lord,
“Sit at my right hand,
until I put your enemies under your feet”’?

If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?” No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord from the heavens;* praise Him in the highest (Psalm 148:1).* Alleluia (x3).

EPARCHY & COMMUNITY

VOCATIONS AND SEMINARY COLLECTION

is conducted annually by the Eparchy of Edmonton during the month of September.

“It takes a whole village to raise a child.” It likewise takes the support of the whole Church to form a deacon, priest, religious, monastic and lay member for ministry in the Church. It also takes our support to offer ongoing education and formation for those already in sacred orders or involved in lay ministry.

The faithful can acknowledge the role they play in nurturing vocations by offering their financial support to help defray such expenses as formation programs, retreats, conferences, seminars, tuition, books, and room and board.

Studying for the diaconate and the priesthood this year, on behalf of the Eparchy of Edmonton, are:

- Volodymyr Babiak (Pastoral Internship, Saint Stephen the Protomartyr Parish, Calgary);
- Alex Kusche (Master of Divinity, Newman Theological College, Edmonton);
- Jacob Kociuba (Master of Divinity, Newman Theological College, Edmonton);
- Brian O’Neill (Diaconate Formation, Saint Stephen Parish, Calgary);

PARENTS ARE THE PRIMARY EDUCATORS OF THEIR CHILDREN

Introduction

The Church has consistently taught that parents are the first and foremost educators of their children. They have the right and duty, given by God, to educate their children in such a way as to best ensure their healthy physical, psychological, intellectual and spiritual development. They have a right and a duty to bring their children up in the Catholic faith. These rights are inviolable and inalienable.

Parental rights are under threat as never before, especially through the imposition of anti-life, anti-family sex education in schools and through the provision of abortion and contraception without parental knowledge. It will be impossible to engage in a 'New Evangelisation' or build a new 'culture of life' if parents are no longer free to educate their children according to the natural moral law and the teachings of the Catholic Church.

Key quotations

"For a child is by nature part of its father: thus, at first, it is not distinct from its parents as to its body, so long as it is enfolded within its mother's womb; and later on after birth, and before it has the use of its free-will, it is enfolded in the care of its parents, which is like a spiritual womb... Hence it would be contrary to natural justice, if a child, before coming to the use of reason, were to be taken away from its parents' custody, or anything done to it against its parents' wish." – St Thomas Aquinas, Summa Theologica (II-II Q.10 Art 12.)

"...inasmuch as the domestic household is antecedent, as well in idea as in fact, to the gathering of men into a community, the family must necessarily have rights and duties which are prior to those of the community, and founded more immediately in nature... The contention, then, that the civil government should at its option intrude into and exercise intimate control over the family and the household is a great and pernicious error...Paternal authority can be neither abolished nor absorbed by the State; for it has the same source as human life itself." – Pope Leo XIII, Rerum Novarum, 15 May 1891

"Parents... have a primary right to the education of the children God has given them in the spirit of their Faith, and according to its prescriptions. Laws and measures which in school questions fail to respect this freedom of the parents go against natural law and are immoral." – Pope Pius XI, Mit Brennender Sorge, 14 March 1937

"Since parents have given children their life, they are bound by the most serious obligation to educate their offspring and therefore must be recognized as the primary and principal educators. This role in education is so important that only with difficulty can it be supplied where it is lacking. Parents are the ones who must create a family atmosphere animated by love and respect for God and man, in which the well-rounded personal and social education of children is fostered. Hence the family is the first school of the social virtues that every society needs. It is particularly in the Christian family, enriched by the grace and office of the sacrament of matrimony, that children should be taught from their early years to have a knowledge of God according to the faith received in Baptism, to worship Him, and to love their neighbour. Here, too, they find their first experience of a wholesome human society and of the Church. Finally, it is through the family that they are gradually led to a companionship with their fellowmen and with the people of God. Let parents, then, recognize the inestimable importance a truly Christian family has for the life and progress of God's own people." – Second Vatican Council, Gravissimum Educationis, 28 October 1965

"The task of giving education is rooted in the primary vocation of married couples to participate in God's creative activity: by begetting in love and for love a new person who has within himself or herself the vocation to growth and development, parents by that very fact take on the task of helping that person effectively to live a fully human life...The right and duty of parents to give education is essential, since it is connected with the transmission of human life; it is original and primary with regard to the educational role of others, on account of the uniqueness of the loving relationship between parents and children; and it is irreplaceable and inalienable, and therefore incapable of being entirely delegated to others or usurped by others...Sex education, which is a basic right and duty of parents, must always be carried out under their attentive guidance, whether at home or in educational centres chosen and controlled by them. In this regard, the Church reaffirms the law of subsidiarity, which the school is bound to observe when it cooperates in sex education, by entering into the same spirit that animates the parents". – Pope St John Paul II, Familiaris Consortio, 22 November 1981

"Since they have conferred life on their children, parents have the original, primary and inalienable right to educate them; hence they must be acknowledged as the first and foremost educators of their children.

a) Parents have the right to educate their children in conformity with their moral and religious convictions, taking into account the cultural traditions of the family which favour the good and the dignity of the child; they should also receive from society the necessary aid and assistance to perform their educational role properly.

b) Parents have the right to freely choose schools or other means necessary to educate their children in keeping with their convictions...

c) Parents have the right to ensure that their children are not compelled to attend classes which are not in agreement with their own moral and religious convictions. In particular, sex education is a basic right of the parents and must always be carried out under their close supervision, whether at home or in educational centres chosen and controlled by them.

d) The rights of parents are violated when a compulsory system of education is imposed by the State from which all religious formation is excluded.

e) The primary right of parents to educate their children must be upheld in all forms of collaboration between parents, teachers and school authorities, and particularly in forms of participation designed to give citizens a voice in the functioning of schools and in the formulation and implementation of educational policies." – Pontifical Council for the Family, Charter of the Rights of the Family, 22 Oct. 1983.

"Parents are the first and most important educators of their own children, and they also possess a fundamental competence in this area: they are educators because they are parents. They share their educational mission with other individuals or institutions, such as the Church and the State. But the mission of education must always be carried out in accordance with a proper application of the principle of subsidiarity. This implies the legitimacy and indeed the need of giving assistance to the parents, but finds its intrinsic and absolute limit in their prevailing right and their actual capabilities. The principle of subsidiarity is thus at the service of parental love, meeting the good of the family unit." – Pope St John Paul II, Letter to Families, 2 February 1994

"...based on the teaching of the Church and with her support, parents must reclaim their own task. By associating together, wherever this is necessary or useful, they should put into action an educational project marked by the true values of the person and Christian love and taking a clear position that surpasses ethical utilitarianism. For education to correspond to the objective needs of true love, parents should provide this education within their own autonomous responsibility...Each child is a unique and unrepeatable person and must receive individualized formation. Since parents know, understand and love each of their children in their uniqueness, they are in the best position to decide what the appropriate time is for providing a variety of information, according to their children's physical and spiritual growth. No one can take this capacity for discernment away from conscientious parents...The Pontifical Council for the Family therefore urges parents to have confidence in their rights and duties regarding the education of their children, so as to go forward with wisdom and knowledge, knowing that they are sustained by God's gift." – Alfonso Cardinal LópezTrujillo, Pontifical Council for the Family, The Truth and Meaning of Human Sexuality, 8 December 1995 <https://voiceofthefamily.com/>

БОЖЕСТВЕННА ЛІТУРГІЯ

Тропарі і Кондаки

Тропар, глас 6: Ангельські сили – на гробі Твоїм,* а сторожа омертвіла.* Мрія ж стояла у гробі,* шукаючи пречистого тіла Твого.* Полонів Ти ад, та не переможений ним,* зустрів Ти Діву, даруючи життя.* Воскреслий з мертвих Господи, слава Тобі.

Слава: Кондак, глас 6: Життєдайною долонею* умёрлих із мрячних долин* воскресів усіх Життєдавець – Христос Бог,* воскресіння подав людському роду.* Він бо всіх Спаситель, воскресіння, і життя, і Бог усіх. І нині: Кондак, глас 6: Заступнице християн непостїдна,* моїтвенице до Творця незамінна,* не погорди голосами молінь грішників,* але випреди як благая з поміччю нам, що вірно співаємо тобі:* Поспішісь на моїтву і скоро прийді на моління,* заступаючи повсякчас, Богородице, тих, що почитають тебе.

Прокімен (глас 6)

Спасї, Господи, народ Твій і благослови спадкоємство Твоє (Пс, 27,9).

Стих: До Тебе, Господи, взиватиму, Боже мій, щоб не відвертвся Ти мовчки від мене (Пс. 27,1).

Апостол: 2 Коринтян 4:6-15

Браття і Сестри, Бог, який сказав: «Нехай із темряви світло засяє», – він освітив серця наші, щоб у них сяяло знання Божої слави, що на обличчі Ісуса Христа. А маємо цей скарб у глиняних посудинах, щоб було видно, що велич сили є від Бога, а не від нас. Нас тиснуть звідусіль, але ми не пригноблені; ми в труднощах, та ми не втрачаємо надії; нас гонять, та ми не покинуті; ми повалені, та не знищені. Увесь час носимо в тілі мертвоту Ісуса, щоб і життя Ісуса в нашій житті було явним. Нас бо весь час живими віддають на смерть із-за Ісуса, щоб і життя Ісуса було явним у нашій смертній тілі. І так смерть діє в нас, а життя у вас.

Та мавши той самий дух віри, про який написано: «Я вірував, тому й говорив», – то й ми віримо, тому й говоримо; бо знаємо, що той, хто воскресив Господа Ісуса, – воскресить і нас з Ісусом і поставить з вами. Бо все це ради вас, щоб розмножена благодать через багатьох збагатила подяку на славу Богу.

Алилуя (глас 6)

Хто живе в помочі Всевишнього, під покрівом Бoga небесного оселиться (Пс. 90,1).

Стих: Скаже Господеві: Ти – заступник мій і прибіжище моє, Бог мій, і надіюся на Нього (Пс. 90,2).

Євангеліє: Мт 22:35-46

В тому часі один законовчитель приступив до Ісуса і спитав його, спокушаючи: – Учителю, котра найбільша заповідь у законі? Він сказав до нього:

– Люби Господа, Бога твого, всім твоїм серцем, усією твоєю душею і всією думкою твоєю: це найбільша й найперша заповідь. А друга подібна до неї: люби ближнього твого,
